These scores represent the conservation value of a given 30-meter-square cell relative to other such cells in the MassConn region, with a score of 80.01-100 reflecting the highest value and therefore greatest importance for protection. For more information about these scores, please visit: http://www.opacumlt.org/massconn/focus/